Gold: Young Joseph Smith wanted to know which church to join. He carefully studied the Bible as he searched for the truth. One day he decided to _____ in the book of James that a person who wants to know the truth should ask God, because God helps those who ask Him. Joseph felt great power in the words of the scripture. He decided he would ask God which church to join. He went to a grove of trees and prayed. Heavenly Father and Jesus appeared to Joseph Smith and told him that he should join none of the churches. What did Joseph do to find out what he should do?

Silver: Fill in the missing words of this poem from The Friend:

When I _____ the scriptures,
I feel the Spirit near.

When I _____ the scriptures,
The Savior's voice I hear.

When I _____ the scriptures,
They help me when I pray.

When I _____ the scriptures,
They guide me through the day.

When I _____ the scriptures,
The Savior's words are clear.

When I _____ the scriptures,
I feel the Spirit near.

Bronze: We are asked to _____ the scriptures every day.
