

Your neighbor has leaves all over her yard. How can you use your helping hands to help her?

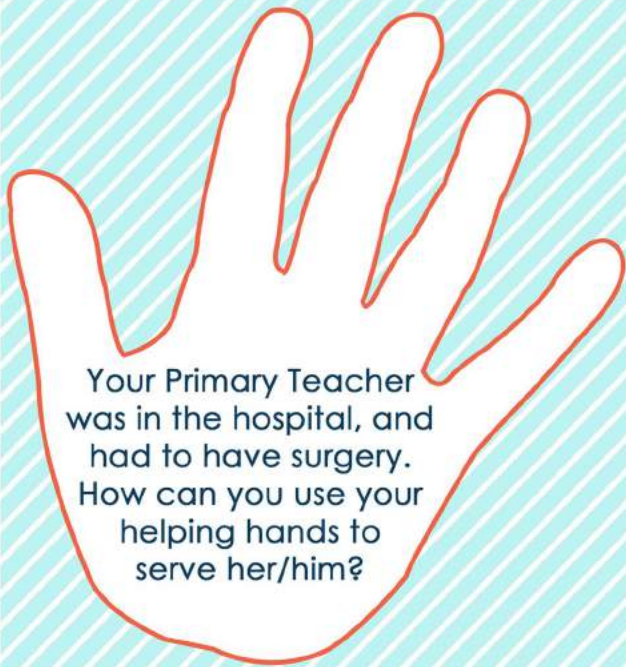

You are walking into the grocery store. You see an older man walking slowly to the door. How can you use your helping hands to help him?

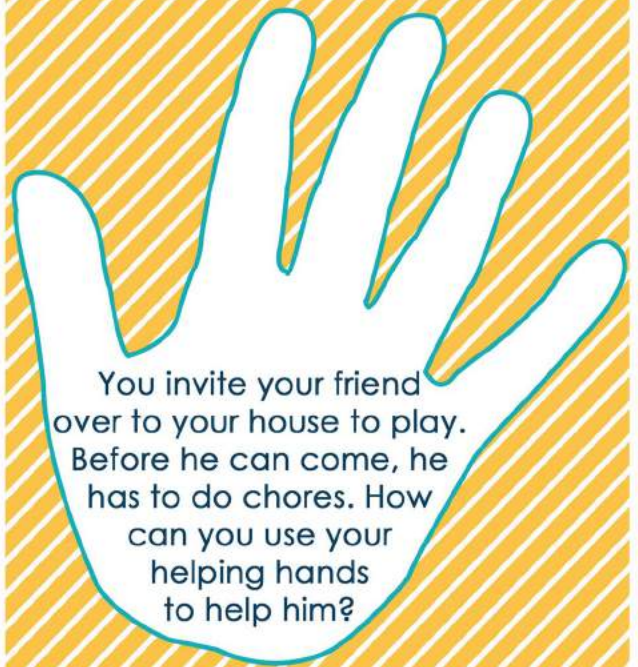

Your little brother has made a big mess in his room. You know your Mom just cleaned. How could you use your helping hands to help out?

Your friend is very sick, and has missed several days of school. How could you use your helping hands to help your friend?

Your Primary Teacher was in the hospital, and had to have surgery. How can you use your helping hands to serve her/him?

You invite your friend over to your house to play. Before he can come, he has to do chores. How can you use your helping hands to help him?

